Payton Schoeppach & The Mafia Boss Take Down Red Bluff Round-Up

By Tanya Randall

In 2022, Payton Schoeppach and The Mafia Boss (“Bossy”) won the first round of the Red Bluff Round-Up. This year, they won the whole thing!

The Lincoln, California, barrel racer and her 13-year-old gelding picked up a $10,426 victory at the $21,000-added rodeo, held April 21-23 in northern California.

“It’s one of my favorite rodeos all year,” said Schoeppach. “The committee is so nice and friendly. They make it an amazing production for all of the contestants as well as the crowd. Everyone just has so much fun and it’s an amazing experience.”

She nearly swept the rodeo after winning the first round with a 17.32 and splitting second in the next round with a 17.22.

“Coming into this year’s rodeo, I knew he could do it,” said Schoeppach, 21. “I just wanted to have a smooth run, so I cruised him through and had a really nice time to end up winning the first round again.”

With the entire first round held in slack, the top 36 advance into one of three performances. As the fastest runner, Schoeppach was in the final performance on Sunday.

After a disappointing second run last year, she wanted to have a fresh approach for 2023.

“I tried to stay calm,” she said. “I wanted to have the attitude of ‘whatever happens, happens; We’ve made it this far.’ We ended up really meshing and we just did it.”

She knew she needed to be at least a 17.4 to have a chance at winning the rodeo.

“I wanted to be faster than my first run,” she said. “If I ride him like I did on my first run and maybe get a little bit tighter on my second barrel, I can do it. I tried to just focus on one thing, which was getting my second barrel better. He just did the rest and we put it all together.”

Schoeppach’s Red Bluff victory jumped her from 76th in the WPRA World Standings to 29th with $17,249 won in 10 rodeos. She’s entered at Clovis, California, this weekend, but she’s not likely to burn up the rodeo road anytime soon.

“My plans depend on school,” said Schoeppach, who is awaiting the results of her dental hygiene school applications. “My parents have made it very clear that school needs to be a priority. I’m just going where I can at the moment until I find out which school I’m going to and when I’ll start. So, I’m just going as much as I can while I can.”

She also knows she only has one horse in her trailer and she doesn’t want to waste his runs.

“I’m being very careful with him. I would like to have more of him. I’m just cherishing every run with him because I know I will be in school soon. I’m trying to have as much fun as I can right now.”

Schoeppach purchased Bossy, a solid paint gelding by Dashing Cartel out of the Paint mare Rose Among Thorns, by Dixons Bandit, from Kelley Carrington-French four years ago.

“I was a junior in high school,” she recalled. “We were at the state high school finals and I told my dad I think I was ready for the next level of barrel horse. He was like ‘Ok, I think I can make that happen.’”

“He was actually the first horse that I flew out and tried,” said Schoepach. “He was it. We just knew right away that he was the one for me. It really was an instant fit.”

While they did have their struggles at times, Schoepach and Bossy have had a lot of success from winning the California State High School Finals, placing at Nationals, qualifying for two College National Finals Rodeos to now winning pro rodeos.

“We’ve done so much together,” she said. “We’ve had our struggles, but he’s always tried his hardest for me. It’s very prevalent. I cherish every run on my horse.”

Kristin Hanchey & Smoothway Ta Heaven Top Pac West Slot Race, Win $14,753

By Tanya Randall

Record-setting 2022 Old Fort Days Derby Champions Kristin Hanchey and Smoothway Ta Heaven ("Mouse"), owned by Tracey Williams, swept Saturday's slot race and open at the Pac West Barrel Race, held April 21-23 in Ocala, Florida.

Hanchey and the 6-year-old roan mare turned in a 13.676 to collect $14,753. Of that total, $12,600 came from winning the 70-entry, $1,000-entry fee slot race.

"It was pretty nice to have the opportunity to win that kind of money three hours from the house," said Hanchey, who resides in Okeechobee, Florida.

"If I've got a trailer full of colts, I'm still going to look for my $30-$40 jackpots, but when you have an open horse and you want to keep them in run shape, I hate to keep taking them up the road to the $40 jackpot that isn't going to pay a whole lot. These horses only have so many runs, so it's nice when they have these bigger stakes barrels crop up.

"With the cost of fuel and what it costs to maintain these horses—just feed and hay—I know we do this as a hobby and all but it's nice when you can go somewhere and make enough money

THANK YOU: Tracey Williams, her owner. "She's still plugging along on this journey with me. We've decided that Mouse is the ticket down here that God uses to teach us lessons. We are learning a lot through this mare about our journey in life. I've always prayed that I have more of a purpose than just riding and training these horses. I've really figured out it's just a barrel race and it's just horses. It's just a vehicle for so much more that God's bringing to our lives. I just hope and pray through the highs and lows that I can continue to put his Word out there and share his Word through these horses. Mouse has definitely given us a vehicle. I feel like we've always been humble people, but Mouse makes sure we stay humble. Tracey and I have been very blessed as friends to walk this journey together."

to where you can breathe and enjoy things a little bit more."

Hanchey did admit she was a little disenchanted with her performances at the various slot races up until Ocala.

"I had been buying (slots) but had kind of worn myself down with it," she said. "I was winning a little to cover the big entry fees at them, but I felt like I kept barely missing. Something just wasn't right."

For the past six months, Hanchey had worked through various physical issues with Mouse that kept the mare from performing to her full potential.

"The last six months we've hit a couple of rough patches," said Hanchey. "I think we're finally getting things lined back out." Although she's ridden daily, Mouse hadn't made a run in nearly a month, so Hanchey decided to make a "tuning run" in Friday night's jackpot.

"Friday night we had a little bit of a tune up run," Hanchey explained. "Mouse has always been a little bit saucy and we had a little bit of that Friday night. It was only a $25 entry fee. When I felt that little bit of sauciness there, I thought we're going to use this run as a little bit of an exhibition run and get her little fanny right. She caught the first barrel to win a check, but it set her up for Saturday. She knew I was serious and she'd better have her fanny in order." Their run in Saturday's slot race was one of Mouse's more aggressive runs.

"She ran super aggressive," Hanchey said of the daughter of the late stallion Blings Smooth Guy, out of the JL Dash Ta Heaven, Cash Not Credit mare Cash Ta Heaven. "It's probably not one of the smoother runs we've made. Usually, her winning runs are nice and smooth. Saturday it felt like she wanted to let me know that she felt good and she put a lot of power into the run, which made it not her typical smooth Mouse run. She put a lot of fire and run into it.” Their 13.676 was their fastest ever for that pattern in that arena, although Hanchey wasn’t sure if it would clock with the way that it felt.

“We’ve run on that pattern in Ocala since her futurity year,” she said. “The fastest she’s ever run on it was a low .7. As the run was going along, I felt that she was strong and throwing a lot of power at me, but usually Mouse’s faster runs are more efficient and smoother. When she came out and I saw the time, I was like, ‘Well, that was a lot of power, and obviously it was efficient, because that’s the fastest time she’s ever run on that pattern. It was fun. It’s nice to know that she’s starting to feel like her old self again.’”

2D Slot Race Winners

Stella Crowther & French N Tonic Win 2D Slot Race Title
Stella Crowther, the 10-year-old daughter of National Finals Rodeo qualifier Margo Crowther and her husband Casey, nabbed $8,528 after winning the 2D for the Pac West Slot Race. She was riding the 13-year-old gelding French N Tonic (“Patron”).

“We’re so proud of her,” said Margo Crowther. “They’re such a good team. They’ve done really well.”

Stella started riding Patron about three years ago.

“I like that he’s big and so kind to everybody,” said Stella, who wanted to thank her mom for helping her with Patron.

She also fed him a lot of treats after his big money-winning run. “He loves apples,” she said. “I have a little bag of cut apples to give him. I gave him lots!”

Stella said she knew her parents had entered her in the slot race, but she didn’t know how much money was at stake. She knew it was a big deal when her parents were more excited than she was about her big win.

Margo was also happy to see Stella riding aggressively again after breaking her leg this past fall.

“I fell off my dirt bike and broke my leg,” Stella recounted. “I started riding again almost a month ago.”

She plans on saving her winnings until she’s older “for a new car or something.”

Canadian Pro Rodeos Added to The Cowboy Channel

Rural Media Group, Inc. (RMG) announced today that it has entered into an assignment and assumption agreement with FloSports, Inc. to purchase and obtain the media rights license for the Canadian Professional Rodeo Association (CPRA). Effective immediately, RMG now owns the exclusive worldwide, global video rights and license to capture, sell, broadcast, stream, record, and/or distribute CPRA events for the next 5 years until December 31, 2027. And as the official media partner of the CPRA, RMG will begin broadcasting CPRA rodeos for the 2023 season on its linear networks, The Cowboy Channel and The Cowgirl Channel, while also working with CPRA-sanctioned rodeos to live stream and VOD additional events on RMG's digital platform Cowboy Channel+. This new partnership builds upon RMG's Canadian foothold with their already existing relationship broadcasting The Calgary Stampede on The Cowboy Channel every year in July along with the chuckwagon races.

"Canada and the U.S. have always had a common bond with their shared love of rodeo and the western lifestyle," stated Patrick Gottsch, Founder of Rural Media Group, Inc. "The addition of these great Canadian rodeos will enhance and expand our international coverage of rodeo on both The Cowboy Channel and The Cowgirl Channel, which will excite and be embraced by our large and growing audiences on both sides of the border, and around the world."

Under this new agreement, The Cowboy Channel will be the new home of the Canadian Finals Rodeo (CFR), which takes place every November in Red Deer, AB, along with the Maple Leaf Circuit Finals in Regina, SK, the SMS Equipment Pro Tour Finals and several other premier stops along the SMS Equipment Pro Tour including but not limited to: Wainwright, Ponoka and Strathmore, AB; Williams Lake and Armstrong, BC;

"Rodeo is just as big in Canada as it is in the United States," said Jeff Medders, The Cowboy Channel President and host of the NFR. "Whether it is fans traveling from Canada to the NFR in Las Vegas every December, or Canadian cowboys and cowgirls competing in PRCA rodeos to earn their spot to compete at the NFR, the sport of rodeo is growing by record numbers."

"FloSports has been a fantastic partner for the Canadian Professional Rodeo Association for the last 5 years and we want to thank them for everything," said Denny Phipps, General Manager of the Canadian Professional Rodeo Association. "We are very excited about our new relationship with Rural Media Group and the opportunity for our events to be broadcast on the Cowboy Channel, the Cowgirl Channel and the Cowboy Channel + app. This move will allow fans to follow their favorite cowboys and cowgirls through the course of the season with a single broadcaster. Canada has some of the best rodeo action in the world, with top tier talent from both sides of the 49th competing, along with amazing animal athletes. We cannot wait to showcase these events on The Cowboy and Cowgirl Channels!"

CPRA events will primarily be on The Cowboy Channel, with overflow rodeos airing on The Cowgirl Channel. For those who live in Canada, it is important to note that all CPRA programming on The Cowboy Channel will also be simulcast on Cowboy Channel Canada and RFD-TV Canada, along with radio coverage on Rural Radio 147 on Sirius XM Canada.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Okay, let's take our minds off what WE need. Let's talk about what someone else needs. God is a giver. He gave Jesus to us. Jesus gave Himself to take on our sins.

What can we give? We can give our time, our finances, our prayers. Let's strrrreettcchh ourselves out there. LOL! Say you go to the horse sale, or the barrel race, or the feed store. If you notice someone is having a bad day, do you ever ask if you can pray for them? Do you ever step up and pay for an item that had to be left at the checkout counter because of lack of finances? Or do you just mind your own business?

If you aren't an outgoing person, it can be a bit intimidating to ask. But wouldn't it be great if you made that persons' day by helping to carry a load? Have you ever bought a policeman's lunch, or coffee for a military person? It's fun!

The size of your gift, in time or money, can be anything. The point is, you took YOU off the throne and put someone else up there. Luke 6:38 PROMISES us if we give, it'll be given back to us, pressed down, shaken together and running over! Pretty great return!

Let's try to outgive God this week!
